7) Courtesy Runners

- a. You can only use 1 courtesy runner per inning.
- b. The courtesy runner must be the last out or a player not in the game.

- c. Exception: If you pinch run for a player in an inning and that kicker hits for a second time in the inning, you may pinch run for that player again.
- d. Co-Ed: you can pinch run for 1 girl and 1 guy per inning, but you must use a guy to run for a guy and a girl to run for a girl.

8) Roster Protest

- a. If you want to protest a roster, it must be done before the final pitch of the game. (Good Sportsmanship: it is better to protest early than to wait to see if you are going to win before protesting.)
- b. You must call time before the final pitch, meet with the home plate umpire, and tell him/her that you want to protest a player not on the opposing team roster. You simply just need to point out the player.
- c. The umpire will then call the director over. Once the director gets the $25, we will check the player you pointed out.
- d. If that player is not on the roster, you will get back your $25 and that game will be forfeited.
- e. If that player is on the roster, you will NOT get back your $25 and the game will resume.
